The Holy Grail

BLESSED NUNO ALVAREZ PEREIRA FREED PORTUGAL FROM DOMINATION BY SPANISH RULE FOR THE SAKE OF HIS LADY, THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY.

NUNO LIVED IN 14TH CENTURY PORTUGAL, WHICH WAS DOMINATED BY CASTILIAN LORDS.

SOME DAY, A GREAT LEADER WILL FREE PORTUGAL.

DON ALVARO, MUST WE HAVE MORE WARS?

I WANT TO BE THAT LEADER, SIRE.

AT FOUR, NUNO'S MOTHER TAUGHT HIM ABOUT GOD AND THE BLESSED VIRGIN.

MOTHER, MY FAIR LADY WILL BE THE BLESSED VIRGIN ALL MY LIFE. I WILL CARRY HER SCAPULAR AS A TOKEN.

AT THIRTEEN, NUNO WITH HIS BROTHERS WAS TAKEN TO THE COURT OF KING FERDINAND.

TO LISBON, SIRE, AND I WILL BE SIR GALAHAD.

VERY WELL, WE SHALL ALL SEE THE WAR AGAINST CASTILE.

REMEMBER, NUNO, YOUR LIFE IS FOR GOD AND PORTUGAL.

YONDER LIES SANTAREM. IT WILL BE OUR STRONGHOLD UNTIL WE RECAPTURE LISBON.

I WILL HELP THE KING REGAIN IT.

THEN CAME HIS FIRST MILITARY EXPLOIT. HE AND HIS BROTHER DIEGO ACTED AS SCOUTS.

THERE - WE ARE CUT OFF.

THEN WE SHALL RUN FOR IT OVER THE OPEN FIELD.

THEY RETURNED SAFELY

MY FATHER, DON ALVARO...
WHERE IS HE TO HEAR MY REPORT?

LEAD
US
THERE.

IN THE GREAT
DINING HALL
WITH THE KING

NUNO MADE HIS REPORT

IT IS A GOOD
REPORT. I THANK GOD FOR YOUR SAFE RETURN.

I HOPE I MAY YET BE A
KNIGHT FOR PORTUGAL

WELL DONE!

THEN....

I SHALL MAKE YOU
MY VERY OWN KNIGHT

MY LADY

NUNO WAS MARRIED TO THE LADY
ELEANORA. THEY LIVED IN THE COUNTRY
FOR THREE YEARS. THEN....

ARM THYSELF
FOR OUR AID.
WE MEET AT PORTALEGRE
AT ONCE

FROM THE KING,
SIRE

DEVOTED TO THE VIRGIN, NUNO ARMED
HIMSELF WITH HER SCAPULAR AND A SWORD AND SET OUT.

I HAVE COME TO THE AID OF
MY COUNTRY

SIRE,
ALL IS DISORDER HERE
WE CANNOT WIN

WE WILL WORK AND FIGHT
IN GOD'S NAME...
AND SUCCEED.

THROUGH NUNO'S INSPIRATION AND BRAVERY THE BATTLE WAS WON.

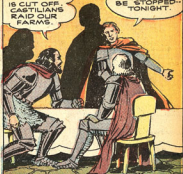

NUNO HAS SAVED US.

THEN FOLLOWED THE SIEGE OF LISBON

THE CITY IS CUT OFF. CASTILIANS RAID OUR FARMS.

THEY SHALL BE STOPPED... TONIGHT.

IN THE DARKNESS.

OUR SUCCESS IS IN OUR LADY'S HANDS. CAREFUL NOW, THE ENEMY IS COMING.

AMBUSH. WE ARE LOST.

THEY ARE BEATEN. RETURN TO LISBON.

WE ARE CUT OFF FROM THE SEA.

COURAGE. WE WILL FIGHT FOR OUR LADY. WHO WILL FOLLOW ME?

FEARFULLY, THE KNIGHTS WATCHED AS NUNO RODE FORWARD TO MEET 200 MEN.

FORWARD... HE CANNOT DIE ALONE.

NUNO WAS UNHORSED BUT WAS SAVED BY HIS FOLLOWERS.

THE CITY WAS SAVED BUT AT COURT A WICKED GROUP GAINED CONTROL.

A SHORT WHILE LATER, NUNO VISITED AN ARMORER'S SHOP.

YOUR BLADE HAS BEEN SHARPENED. PAY ME WHEN YOU RETURN AS COUNT OF OUREM.

IMPOSSIBLE. I WILL NEVER BE COUNT, BUT YOU HAVE DONE YOUR WORK WELL.

THE HOLY NAME MARIA APPEARS THERE. OUR LADY HAS BLESSED MY WORK.

WHILE NUNO WAS ABSENT FROM SANTAREM, THE MASTER OF DAVIZ OVERTHREW THE WICKED COUNT.

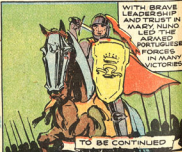

THE NEWS REACHED NUNO AND HE HASTENED TO SANTAREM.

YOU ARE THE CHAMPION OF OUR COUNTRY. I PLEDGE YOU MY FEALTY.

YOU WILL BE IN CHARGE OF ALL OUR ARMED FORCES. YOU ARE THE NEW COUNT OF OUREM.

WITH BRAVE LEADERSHIP AND TRUST IN MARY, NUNO LED THE ARMED PORTUGUESE FORCES IN MANY VICTORIES.

Legends of ST. CATHERINE OF ALEXANDRIA

ST. CATHERINE OF ALEXANDRIA WAS A GLORIOUS MARTYR TO HER FAITH - HER FEAST DAY IS CELEBRATED ON NOVEMBER 25. VERY LITTLE IS KNOWN OF HER HISTORY BUT THERE ARE MANY LEGENDS

WHILE THE EMPEROR MAXIMUS WAS PERSECUTING THE CHURCH, CATHERINE, YOUNG, BRILLIANT, AND OF NOBLE BIRTH, BECAME A CHRISTIAN.

ACCORDING TO TRADITION, SHE HAD A VISION BEFORE HER BAPTISM.

JESUS SAVE!

AFTER HER BAPTISM, ANOTHER VISION OCCURRED.

MY LORD AND MASTER!

CATHERINE REBUKED THE EMPEROR FOR HIS PERSECUTIONS.

YOU ARE CRUEL! ONLY YOUR FALSE GODS DEMAND THIS OF YOU.

ENOUGH, SEND FOR THE SCHOLARS TO ANSWER HER.

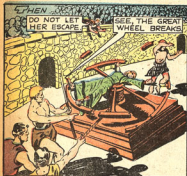

THE SCHOLARS COULD NOT ANSWER HER.

WE ARE DISMAYED, MY LORD - HER THOUGHTS ARE DANGEROUS.

GIVE UP THIS STRANGE FAITH, OR YOU WILL BE IMPRISONED.

NEVER!

The Story of Thanksgiving

A Playlet for younger children

(A Thanksgiving play for you to present to your classmates. Follow the directions carefully and if you need directions for the costumes, see the Treasure Chest "How to Make" Page.)

Cast

A reader A Boy
 Pilgrims (Same as Englishmen) Five Boys, Three Girls
 Indians Five Boys
 Dutchman A Boy
 Dutch Children Five Girls
 Soldiers Three Boys

ACT ONE

Reader: Long ago, in old England, there were people who did not like the laws which the King made for the Church. They were very unhappy.

Englishman: We are unhappy here, and afraid of the King's soldiers.

Englishman II: But what can we do?

Englishman III: Let us go to another land. We will sail to Holland. There we can worship as we please.

(The English men, women, form a double file and walk slowly across the stage. In back the three soldiers stand and say: Obey the King. Obey the King.)

Reader: And so, these people, called Pilgrims, crossed over to Holland to begin a new life.

(The Englishmen and women clasp their hands in front of them and wave them slowly from left to right as they walk across stage, chanting "We sail, We sail, We sail.")

ACT TWO

Reader: The Pilgrims were happy in Holland for several years. Then, one day ...

Englishman: Yes, Holland is a nice country, but I miss England.

Englishwoman: Our children are forgetting their native land.

Englishman: The work is hard. Could we go to America?

(Six boys and girls join hands in a circle revolving towards the right. When the circle has taken one complete turn, reverse the direction. At the finish of the circle, stomp each foot as directed.)

(The children chant)

This is the song the Dutch children sing
 When the tulips bloom in the spring;

This is the dance the Dutch children do,
 Lift each foot, put down each shoe!
 With a zing, ring, (Stomp once)
 With a zing, ring, (Stomp once)
 With a zing, ring, zing!

(Stomp three times)

Reader: So the English sailed back to England to try to get a ship for the new free land, America.

ACT THREE

Reader: And now the English found a small ship to take them to America. It was the Mayflower. The voyage across the stormy seas was rough and dangerous. After many days, the ship reached America.

(The group in double file crosses the stage with their arms making the "sail" motions. They chant "we sail, we sail". The line then turns back on the stage as they kneel with hands clasped in prayer.)

Englishman: We thank Thee, O Lord, for saving us from the stormy waters. We thank Thee for giving our hearts courage to find a land in which to worship Thee.

ACT FOUR

Reader: It was cold in New England that first winter. The wind whistled through the log cabins but the brave settlers kept at their work and did not lose hope. Friendly Indians taught them the secrets of the forest and helped them plant and fish.

(Enter the Indians, walking first on toes, then bringing heels down hard. They carry rattles, feathers, and a small tom tom.)

(The English watch them perform.)

Indians:

1. We are Indians, brave and true,
Come to help and come to do;
We beat the tom tom, then we prance,
For this is our own Indian dance.

(The Indians make a circle, walking around on heels and toes. As the tom tom sounds at the end of each line, each Indian looks up and throws up his arms above his head.)

2. We dance and then we stop and pray
To the Great White Spirit who guards our day.
We'll show you how to hunt and fish
And plant the corn just as you wish.

(Indians go off)

ACT FIVE

Reader: With the help of the Indians the settlers survived the winter. In the spring they planted crops.

Englishman: How good it is to be in America. This is really a new England.

Englishwoman: The children grow strong and healthy. Soon this will be a big village.

Englishman: We must not forget that God has been good to us.

Englishman: Come, it is almost time to gather the corn. We will place it in the storehouse.

(Four workers appear holding their arms back to their shoulder as if they were carrying rakes and baskets.)

Workers: He that works not, doesn't eat—

That's the rule all complete;

We go forth to get the corn

Back to the barn before the morn.

ACT SIX

Reader: The harvest was brought in to the barns and then the leaders called the people together.

Crier: Oyez, oyez, come one, come all.

Englishman: Are the good folk all here?

Englishman: We are here. What is the great news?

Englishman: Our leader wishes to speak to us.

Leader: Thanks to the good Lord who saw us safely through many dangers, we are today alive and well. Our barns are filled with the harvest.

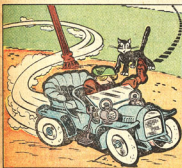

We will set aside a day from our labors in thanksgiving to Him for His help and generosity. We will offer our thanks to Him at the church and afterwards we will have a great feast. Do you agree?

All: It is a good thing for us to remember the Lord at this harvest time.

Reader: So the people set off to church and afterwards had a great feast of corn, wild turkey, berries, nuts, and fruits.

(The group forms in a long square as if seated around oblong table. Each folds his hands and bows his head.)

Pastor: May we always remember the graces of God. This is our prayer of Thanksgiving today.
